Wicker (15)

UK/Aus 2026. Dir Alex Huston Fischer, Eleanor Wilson. With Olivia Colman, Alexander Skarsgård - 105mins

Olivia Colman gives yet another bravura performance in this delightfully offbeat comedy, playing an outcast from her village who orders herself a wicker husband.

Fisherwoman is unmarried, allegedly smelly, constantly teased by her small-minded neighbours and desperate to keep to herself. But when she decides to see what life would be like with a very particular kind of mail-order husband, what arrives (a statuesque Alexander Skarsgård) soon sparks jealousy and creates chaos. Alex Huston Fischer and Eleanor Wilson's wonderfully eccentric fable is, at its core, a gentle love story.

Prima Facie (15)

UK/Aus 2026. Dir Susanna White. With Cynthia Erivo, Simon Russell-Beale, Daniel Ings - 109mins

Anchored by a powerhouse performance from Cynthia Erivo, this piercing legal drama examines what happens when an ambitious barrister who primarily defends those accused of sex crimes unexpectedly becomes the accuser. Adapted by Australian playwright Suzie Miller from her globally acclaimed one-woman show with Jodie Comer, and directed by Susanna White, Prima Facie exposes the pitfalls of a legal system that places the burden of proof on the victim. Having risen from a working-class background to a successful career in law, Tessa (Erivo) does not suffer fools. She is a formidable presence in the courtroom, expertly dismantling opposing arguments, uncovering vulnerabilities, and holding her adversaries to the highest standards of jurisprudence. For Tessa, the nature of a client's alleged crime is irrelevant: she believes the legal system operates optimally when all parties are given the strongest possible representation. However, her life is turned upside down when she is sexually assaulted by a colleague, forcing her to experience first-hand just how merciless — and misogynistic — the law can be toward already-traumatized women who are merely seeking justice.

A Talent for Murder (15)

US/UK 2026. Dir. Anton Corbijn. With Helen Mirren, Alden Ehrenreich, Olivia Cooke - 106mins

This smouldering chamber thriller from director Anton Corbijn (Control) imagines a strange confrontation between a literary agent and legendary author Patricia Highsmith, whose acclaimed, icily intelligent crime novels were the source material for such classic films as Hitchcock's Strangers on a Train and The Talented Mr. Ripley. It is 1995, and American author Highsmith (Mirren), now in her seventies and in poor health, has retired to the Swiss Alps, where she largely confines herself to her study, surrounded by her books, her cats, and her collection of antique weapons. Enter Edward Ridgeway (Ehrenreich), emissary for a New York publisher sent to persuade Highsmith to craft one last instalment in her bestselling series of mysteries featuring the murderous antihero, Tom Ripley. Irritated by this youthful, overly eager visitor, Highsmith refuses the offer — unless, that is, Ridgeway can dream up the perfect murder along with her.

Shot over three years the film charts the two Derek's turbulent relationship, as tempers fray, wild animals run amok, and the land is radically transformed.

Made by award-winning director James Dawson, it's a film about land use and farming told by farmers. Blunt, funny and heartwarming in equal measure.

UK/USA 2026. Dir Anthony Maras. With Andrew Scott, Brendan Fraser, Kerry Condon - 100mins

The lives of millions and the fate of the war hangs in the balance of these few short days.

After their sold out show in January 2026, The Garfunkels are super excited to be back for another show this December at the Riverside.

A bit about The Garfunkels:

"There was one small problem - neither of us wanted to be Paul Simon. To make it work, one of us was going to have to get a hair cut. And that simply wasn't going to happen"

Not many 20 year old lads think of starting a Simon & Garfunkel tribute act - but Suffolk-based musicians Tom Mumford and Angelo Littler did exactly that.

The Garfunkels' set is a celebration of Simon & Garfunkel's music and story. With rich harmonies and engaging storytelling, you can expect to hear the most iconic songs over the years - from the debut album Wednesday Morning 3AM' to bestselling, award wining 'Bridge Over Troubled Water'.

She's forgotten that the new CBT therapist starts today and though she thinks CBT is shit, they have an instant spark. With 24 hours to get her man before the next decade begins, she attempts some indiscreet flirting whilst welcoming him to the team.

Meanwhile, she's running damage limitation on her receptionist who thinks empathy is quoting pop lyrics, fending off the advances of her supervisor and dodging the barbs of the psychodynamic therapist who analyses how she eats fruit.

Can Rachel find love before the clock strikes 40? Or will her neurotic team thwart her attempts before she even gets a chance to f it up herself?

TICKET PRICES

General cinema entrance prices can be found at the front of the programme. Stage shows and live broadcast shows are priced individually. Please note pre-booked tickets for all our performances (including films) are non refundable. ID may be requested for 15 and 18 certificated films, and Student ID. There is a fee for purchasing tickets over the telephone, the Remote Booking Fee represents our charge for providing a convenient online and telephone booking service to our customers and is payable for all online and telephone bookings, irrespective of the method of payment. As the Remote Booking Fee only applies to bookings made online or by telephone, it can be avoided by purchasing tickets in person at the cinema. If you are an annual or six-monthly membership card holder then no booking fee is applicable online or via the telephone.

75p per ticket up to a maximum of £2.25, so if you purchase 4 tickets or more the total additional fee applicable would still be £2.25.

The fee allows a customer to secure a seat of their choice in advance, helps to cover the cost of our website, web hosting fees, our ticket provider costs, the processing of the payment and necessary administration to secure your advance booking.

AUDIO DESCRIPTION SERVICE

Cinema audio description is a fantastic service for people with sight loss. The normal film soundtrack comes through the cinema's surround sound speakers in the usual way, whilst a recorded narrator explains what's happening on screen – in gaps in the dialogue – through personal headphones. Most popular cinema releases are now available with audio description tracks.

Just ask for an A.D. headset at the box office. The audio description is broadcast through personal headphones – only the wearer hears it.

We also offer a hearing loop system for our customers with impaired hearing. A hearing loop sends sound from a source straight to hearing aids on the hearing loop setting (this used to be called the 'T' setting). Most hearing aids have a hearing loop setting.

CEA CARD

The CEA Card is a national card scheme developed for UK cinemas by the UK Cinema Association (UKCA). The Card enables a disabled cinema guest to receive a complimentary ticket for someone to go with them when they visit a participating cinema. For more information and to apply for a card visit the CEA Card website.
